Dear Mr. Kim:

It is my privilege to thank you and your partners for The Bascom Group's contribution to support the CU Real Estate Center here at CU-Boulder. Your generosity not only allows us to provide our students with a valuable educational experience, but also provides them with a wonderful example of personal leadership and philanthropy.

As we continue to identify the key priorities for this campus, our efforts remain focused on how to better serve our students and increase student success. In this exciting era of transformation, a number of key initiatives are altering the landscape of our university and challenging our students in new and innovative ways.

With transformation comes a need for greater teamwork and collaboration—especially with devoted and supportive individuals and corporations like you and The Bascom Group. Thank you again for your investment in CU-Boulder. It is your personal commitment to our academic and creative work that makes it possible for us to achieve our many successes.

Sincerely,
